

ALICE SPRINGS STEINER SCHOOL

Casual Relief Teachers

-Ongoing-

Come and join us at a remote school in the middle of Australia! In the only true desert, our School is nestled below the breathtaking MacDonal Ranges located the centre of our great continent.

We are seeking someone with versatile skills to teach at a Steiner School or relevant training who is able to meet the curriculum needs of all Primary Classes.

We value team players with excellent communication skills, enthusiasm and a love of teaching.

You could be crafty, movement and/or musically orientated with a capacity to work across all of Primary (Transition to Class 6).

You acknowledge the Steiner Philosophy and are willing to spend time understanding the methodology of curriculum.

The school will provide some training in the Steiner Philosophy and techniques for those who want to learn more about our teaching methods.

We have single stream classes and are continuing our building program for the high school with a new Master Plan having been developed. There are also taxation benefits available for working and living in a remote area – Alice Springs is a lively cosmopolitan town with strong indigenous culture, theatre, music, the vibrant arts community, cafes, restaurants and all services.
